Dear Prospective and Current Students:

As many of you know, Charleston School of Law is in the process of becoming a nonprofit school. The legal method to accomplish this will be a donation of the Law School by the current members of Charleston School of Law, LLC, to the Charleston School of Law Foundation, Inc., an existing nonprofit, which will be renamed the Charleston School of Law, Inc. Under federal law, this donation is considered a “change in ownership” that requires approval from multiple regulators, including the U.S. Department of Education.

Pursuant to 34 C.F.R. § 600.20(g)(4), the Department of Education requires that we notify prospective and current students at least 90 days in advance of the closing of the transaction. Accordingly, please take notice that the proposed change in ownership will take place on or after November 1, 2024.

We are all very excited about this next step in the Law School’s history. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me. I can be reached at 843-377-1324 or lcunningham@charlestonlaw.edu. This notice will also appear on our website, charlestonlaw.edu.

Sincerely,

Larry Cunningham
Provost, Dean, and Professor of Law
